Human Resources Leader Coretha Rushing Nominated to 2U's Board of Directors

LANDOVER, Md., April 7, 2016 — 2U, Inc. (NASDAQ: TWOU), today announced that Coretha Rushing, senior vice president and chief people officer at Equifax, has been nominated by 2U's board of directors to stand for election as a director at the 2016 annual meeting of stockholders.

"We are pleased to nominate Coretha to the 2U board," said Tim Haley, chair of the nominating and corporate governance committee. "Her experience in creating corporate cultures that promote inclusion and innovation will provide insight and leadership as 2U accelerates its growth strategy."

A recognized human resources thought leader with more than 25 years of experience in aligning human resources programs with business objectives, Rushing has served as head of human resources for Equifax, a global leader in information technology, since 2006. Prior to Equifax, she served in several senior human resources roles for the Coca-Cola Company where she led all human resources functions for the global beverage company. Rushing also was the director of human resources for the Midwest division of Pizza Hut and worked at IBM in several human resources management positions.

A native of Virginia, Rushing received her bachelor's degree in industrial psychology from East Carolina University and holds a master's degree in human resources and counseling from George Washington University. She is also certified as a senior professional in human resources from the Society of Human Resource Management, where she serves on the board of directors and is a member of its compensation committee. She is also a current board member for the Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Atlanta where she serves on the finance committee.

Rushing will stand for election in the place of Michael T. Moe, whose term as a company director will expire at the 2016 annual meeting of stockholders. Co-founder, CEO and chief investment officer of GSV Capital Corp, Moe has served on the 2U board of directors since 2013.

"A leading authority on growth investing, Michael is committed to re-imagining education by fueling innovators in the space. His perspective on where great things will happen in the growth economy and in education is second to none," said Chip Paucek, 2U's CEO and co-founder. "2U would like to thank Michael for his contributions, his insights and his leadership, which have been invaluable to 2U during his tenure."
